SEATTLE POLICE DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM

TO : LT. HULMAN

DATE 7-30-74

RECLASSIFIED

FROM: OFFICER DOUGLAS L. KIESZ 2953

SUBJECT : POSSIBLE SUSPECT CAR IN THE RECENT ABDUCTION CASES IN SEATTLE.

I RESIDE IN THE VICINITY OF LAKE SAMMANISH AND HAVE ATTEMPTED TO BE ALERT FOR THE BRONZE COLORED VW THAT IS A POSSIBLE SUSPECT CAR IN THE RECENT ABDUCTIONS. LAST WEEK, ABOUT THURSDAY OR FRIDAY I HAD OCCASSION TO OBSERVE A BRONZE COLORED VW ON THE REDMOND-CARNATION ROAD. I WAS UNABLE AT THAT TIME TO OBTAIN ALICENSE NUMBER. THE CAR WAS OCCUPIED BY TWO WHITE MALES WHOM I WOULD ESTIMATE TO BE IN THEIR MIDDLE TWENTIES. ON FRIDAY THE SAME WEEK I AGAIN OBSERVED THE SAME VW ON THE AMES LAKE ROAD. THE CAR TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE DOES NOT BELONG IN THAT AREA. IT WAS AT THAT TIME OCCUPIED BY ASINGLE WHITE MALE IN HIS TWENTIES.

ON 7-29-74 AT 2000 HOURS I AGAIN OBSERVED THE SAME VW AND IT WAS TRAVELLING EAST ON THE BELLEVUE-REDMOND ROAD. IT WAS OCCUPIED BY A ~~NEBO~~ MALE (DRIVER) IN HIS TWENTIES AND A WHITE FEMALE IN HER EARLY TWENTIES. I WAS ABLE AT THIS TIME TO GET THE LICENSE NUMBER. THE # WAS IXF-848. I RAN A OLYMPIA REGISTRATION ON THE LICENSE NUMBER AND IT CAME BACK NOT IN FILE. I THEN ORDERED A HAND SEARCH AND IT CAME BACK THAT IT HAD NEVER BEEN ISSUED IN THIS STATE.

THERE IS A YOUNG WHITE MALE, LATER TWENTIES LIVING ON AMES LAKE . I DO NOT KNOW WHAT TYPE OF CAR HE DRIVES OR WHETHER HE IS TIED IN WITH ANY OF THE ABOVE PERSONS. I HEARD THAT HE HAS ATERMINAL DECEASE AND THE LAKE IS USED QUITE OFTEN FOR SAILBOATS SINCE MOTORS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON THE LAKE. THIS LAKE IS QUITE SECLUDED AND SPARSELY TRAVELED.

I WILL ATTEMPT TO GET THE NAMES OF THE RESIDENT ON THE LAKE AND WILL SEND ALL INFOR-MATION TO YOUR UNIT.

THE COLOR # ON OUR COLOR CHART WHICH COMES

THE CLOSEST TO THIS CAR IS A BR-34,

Killer

Sirs: The following information is being forwarded to you regarding the unsolved and bizarre murder business most simply defined as "TED".

We do not wish to inform on persons who have nothing to do with this case, but we do believe every possible suspect should be checked until this person is captured.

We do not know our suspect's name. So from hereon he shall be called only the suspect.

Summer 1974 Redmond Bicycle Derby

Suspect was seen entering Redmond. Had bangs, blondish hair (possibly bleached), wearing mascara, eyebrows shaped, white shorts, white sneakers, well-tanned.

Fall 1974

Suspect was seen "hanging around" Silver Spoon in Duvall. He was not a regular. He had his arm in a cast. His hair was now darker and much curlier. He was starting to grow a beard. His associates seemed to tend towards strangeness, especially in their attitudes.

Late Fall 1974 (a guess)

Seen at Nite & Day in Duvall with a leg cast. He was seen at the laundromat with a very young girlfriend.

Winter/Spring 74-75

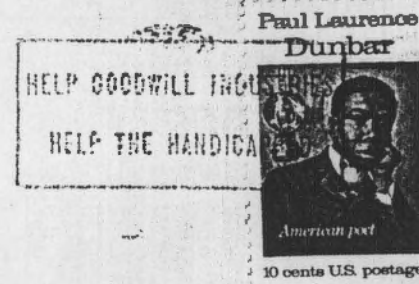

He grew a full beard. Hair longer. He looked more like a hippy. Wearing plaid shirts. Hitchhiking a lot. New cast on arm. No girlfriend, anymore.

KILLER

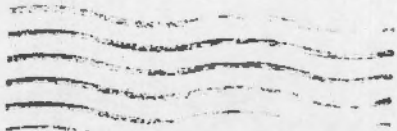

Summer 1975

Reappeared in Duvall after sometimes being there, sometimes not. But not at all regular. No casts. Beard shaved. Hair brownish. No girlfriends noticed. Hangs around with two not-quite hippies. Ages looks to be 22-24. Wears burgundy-colored shirts. Tourquoise bracelets and rings. He has visited someone above Duvall laundromat. One of his friends drives a car with license no. ATO 169.

Footnote: This person and his pals, but especially this person, our suspect, scares the hell out of several local girls and women. He approaches them or follows them— always smiling— then waits for positive reaction, but never succeeds as far as we know. It's worth investigating, anyway. So please do.

Kendall resigns from school board

By SANDI DOLBEE

Steven L. Kendall has resigned from the Auburn School Board, the Globe-News learned late Wednesday afternoon.

Kendall is expected to announce the resignation formally at tonight's school board meeting.

The 24-year-old University of Washington senior had been under fire from other board members and residents to resign after he was convicted Friday of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

In a formal statement read Monday night by Board President Rodger Campbell, the school board said it was "shocked" by Kendall's "impossible behavior" and asked that he resign his post immediately "in consideration of the parents and students he was elected to represent."

Supt. James Fugate said Kendall's letter of resignation was sent to him Wednesday. Kendall himself could not be reached for comment.

Before Wednesday, Kendall had refused to resign, maintaining that while he had made a mistake it would not interfere with his duties as a school board member. He suggested recall as a possible outlet for the public.

Kendall was elected to the board in September 1973 when he defeated long-time Board Member Bob Radnich in the primary election. By doing so, only Kendall's name appeared on the general election ballot.

At the time — then 23-year-old — Kendall was the youngest school board member ever elected to the board.

School board asks Kendall to resign

By SANDI DOLBEE

School Board Member Steven L. Kendall was asked to resign by the rest of the board and by one citizen at a board meeting Monday night.

Kendall, 24, was asked for his resignation because he was convicted Friday in a Buckley court of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, a 16-year-old boy.

"The board is shocked by Mr. Kendall's impossible behavior," said President Rodger Campbell in a formal statement read at the meeting.

The school board does not condone this behavior from a school employee and will not condone it from a board member, Campbell continued.

Therefore, he added, the board is encouraging Kendall to resign his position "in consideration of the students and patrons he was elected to represent."

Kendall, who sat quietly with his eyes lowered while Campbell read the brief statement, later said he understood the board's position but will not resign.

"I'm sorry for what I did...certainly there is no excuse," Kendall related.

But Kendall maintained, if there is that much objection from the community then it is their prerogative to begin a recall drive.

"If that doesn't conspire then I assume the people will forgive and forget — or at least forget."

However, one resident asked Kendall to resign now and save taxpayers the extra time and money of a recall.

Doris Driscoll said the court conviction means he "got caught this time," accusing Kendall of carrying on such activities for almost two years.

Kendall denied Mrs. Driscoll's charges, again referring to recall as the community's outlet of opinion.

STEVE KENDALL

Asked to resign from board

Youth arrested with Kendall's identification

A 15-year-old Auburn High School student has been charged with possession of marijuana, resisting arrest and possession of an altered identification.

The youth was taken into custody about Friday noon by Auburn Police after two officers observed what appeared to be a marijuana transfer in the high school parking lot, according to Det. Bruce Caldwell.

According to Caldwell, the youth had in his possession an altered voter registration card which belonged to School Board Member Steve Kendall.

Caldwell said the boy claims he found the card about a week ago. The upper right hand corner of the card had been etched out and a photo of the youth transplanted onto it, Caldwell said.

Kendall said he became aware he lost the card about two or three weeks ago and had ordered a new one.

TO: JOHN L. KING, MSW, SUPERINTENDENT, WORK RELEASE PROGRAM
FROM: WILLIAM BEAZLEY, ACSW, SOCIAL WORKER, WORK RELEASE PROGRAM
SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

Mr. [REDACTED] was held in today to speak with me as a result of his coming back from his pass late once again.

During our conversation Mr. [REDACTED] verbalized his responsibility to adhere to program rules, but appeared in affect to be preoccupied. His conversation wandered and was somewhat disorganized. He discussed his relationship with his stepmother, stating that she "had taken an interest in him and was trying to help him." He said that she at one time worked with "gangs of kids as a counselor" and he guessed that was why she was interested in helping him. He continued stating that she had a friend who was an attorney and that this friend was going to help him get out. This attorney could not understand why he was in jail at this time on a six month sentence, as he was incarcerated August 28, 1974. He was not sentenced until December 6, 1974. I explained that perhaps it was the Court's decision not to grant him "time served". I explained that he of course had the right to approach the Court with his questions. He did not respond to my statement, but rather told me that he believed that he had some information regarding the women found murdered. I reflected his statement and he told me that he thought he may have met "Ted". That he had related some information to a detective by the name of Smith, who in turn sent him to Lt. Dunn. I asked him what information he had given the detectives. He said that he told them about meeting Mrs. Ott at Tri City Mental Health Center. That he had known her from high school. She was in the company of this person who resembled "Ted". He said that his mother was with him and that she mentioned the name Healy, and that this individual took special notice. He thought that this person was a client of the program. I wondered if he had even seen this person that resembled "Ted" before. Mr. [REDACTED] stated that he was a friend of Greg Goldsmith. He then related that this individual had his picture taken with a Les Larson by Greg Goldsmith. Again I reflected his statement. He continued, stating that the reason this stuck in his mind was because this individual had a cast on his arm. "Greg was trying to get Les to smile, and told him to smile like this other guy." He said that it was this picture that particularly stuck in his mind. That maybe "Greg" still has it. He said he called "hot line" and told them about it. I wondered if this was the only time, other than at Tri City Mental Health Center, he saw this person. He said it was not and then related another episode where they met this person (his cousin and other friends) in a service station. This person was driving a VW and had a boat attached. They began "kidding" with the guy to take them boating. This, however, subsided and it was mentioned by the group that it was "just as well that they didn't go because they all couldn't get into the VW." The service station was located in Burien.

John L. King

Re: [REDACTED]

He then mentioned an incident at a Les Larson's. This individual is a friend of Mr. [REDACTED]'s. He said that he went to visit Les Larson on an occasion and found Less to be cleaning up after a paint job. "Les is a painter." I wondered how this could be significant and Mr. [REDACTED] stated, "it was in the summer. The car he painted must have been a VW or a small car, because there was small car tracks in the garage." He said that it was most likely painted blue, because it was blue paint that Les Larson was putting away. I asked him if he had seen a VW and he told me he had, but didn't know if it was the one painted. This VW belonged to the fellow that resembled "Ted". I wondered why this fellow would be around and he said that he was a friend of Greg Goldsmith.

I wondered if his friends were acquainted with any of the deceased women. He said that they all were acquainted with some of them. He stated that his cousin knew Ms. Healy, as well as her brother. He volunteered that he knew some of the girls, that "all of the girls killed related in some fashion." I reflected his statement and he responded, "they were all drug counselors." I wondered if he remembered their names. He said that there was "Healy, Rancourt, Ms. Ball, Denise Naslund, and Vonnice Stuth." His cousin was a good friend of Ms. Stuth, also.

I wondered if he remembered which months the girls disappeared. He replied Healy disappeared in February, Rancourt in April, Ms. Ball in June, Denise Naslund the 4th of July. He then mentioned the one girl missing in Oregon.

Though Mr. [REDACTED]'s discussion of this matter was fragmented, through reflection he continued to come back and associate incidents with one friend and then another. Most interesting was his memory for names and months of disappearance, if they are indeed correct. His overall affect lends some concern that should be investigated. Also interesting was the manner in which he continued to interweave the individual he describes as "Ted" into situations and with associates. He laid heavy on his cousin's acquaintance with several of the girls; also

On or about the above time and date, U/S was contacted by Issaquah Radio and requested that Ms. Kingman be contacted by phone. Radio advised that Ms. Kingman stated that she had information regarding a possible "Ted" and insisted on giving the information to Snoq. P.D.

Ms. Kingman was contacted. She stated that approx. two months ago she was staying with a lady by the name of Dotty Shanard, who lives in the Meadowbrook area of Snoqualmie. She somehow met a man named "Patchy" about 50 years, who drives a red Chev. pickup. She stated that "Patchy" was with a young man. She described the young man as 22 years, smaller than average height, wire rim glasses, pointed nose and droopy eyes, with a "country" accent.

Ms. Kingman stated that she was kind of drunk at the time but she remembered that all three of them were in the pickup. Patchy tried to get friendly with her. She stated she and the young man went off alone and "made it together". At a later time she found out that the man has a wife named Bonnie.

Ms. Kingman stated that because she was drunk, she could not give times and places or more details. She stated that she is sure that the man was the "Ted" that the police were looking for in connection with the murders of several women.

Ms. Kingman also mentioned that "Patchy" has a friend that goes by the nickname of "Old Coon Dog" who lives in the Snoqualmie area.

U/S checked the Snoq. P.D. files and phone book for anyone with the name Shanard or Chanard with negative results.

11 Person reporting called the station and advised that she was sure that she just saw a photo of "Ted". The reason she called our department is that the subject lives in Lynnwood. This evening, she states that she was looking at a brochure titled "Yakima Police Officers Association presents the Seattle Sounders vs. the LA Aztecs". Apparently this brochure is for a soccer event held in Yakima on 4-7-75 and the teams stayed at the Holiday Motor Hotel in Yakima. In looking through the pictures of the teams in the brochure, person reporting is sure one of the players looks like "Ted", and the caption for this subject read [REDACTED], 22 YOA, 5'8", 152#, from England - lives in Lynnwood, hobby is Impressions and he is a forward for the team. Find no record on subject our office or city directory. Do find a Mrs. [REDACTED] 242nd SW, Edm., phone number - 774-[REDACTED] in phone book. Ran Driver's Check on [REDACTED] 242nd SW, shows - DOB: 12-[REDACTED]-39, male, blue, 5'10", 165#. No DMV record on a [REDACTED] Lynnwood. Re: Missing Women & "Ted"

For my own protection (and my children's), I feel I must remain anonymous. Especially should this man prove not to be involved in anything criminal, I would be fearful that he would come after me. He has been to my house once and fortunately has forgotten the way — however at least twice he has mentioned trying to find my house again. So please, if you think this important enough to follow up, do not make mention of myself or anyone else that I may mention, as he will immediately know who I (or we) are. Even should this prove to be a false lead, I knew he is capable of violence and I certainly don't want our lives endangered. Finally while this request may sound overly dramatic, I assure you my fears are shared by most of us who know him.

The young man I am going to tell you about is known to us as [redacted] or [redacted]. He looks similar to the drawing of "Ted" except his eyes are not that close-set. He has blond hair, with sideburns that fall to the nape of his neck. His eyes are what most people notice first (it is being his best feature).

He is approximately 5'4" tall but gives the impression of being slightly taller. I believe he said he was 25 yrs. old. As far as we know he is still driving a 1965 light aqua Plymouth sedan. I vaguely recall a tattoo of an eagle on his upper arm (right arm I think). He said he works as a journeyman machinist at Boeing. At first meeting, he impresses people as being a very nice, mannerly person - very quiet and thoughtful.

In early May (approx.) a woman picked him up as he was hitchhiking on I5 near Tukwila. He seemed to have nowhere to go, he knew no one here and was broke; so she took him to her family's house. He said he had just returned from Viet Nam, that his twin brother had been killed there. Within 2 or 3 days his manner changed and he would just sit all day and glare at people and the men in the family became quite concerned at the way he looked at the young teen-age girl in the family.

Approximately the second week of May he was introduced to friends (a couple) who liked him quite well, as before he appeared to be a very nice person. He was invited to stay at their house for a few days while he looked for work. He moved in with the couple about the third week of May. By that time he had supposedly been hired by Puget Sound Naval Shipyard in Bremerton as a boilermaker. Supposedly he was still in the service but was on some kind of leave and didn't have to report back until his "release" date at the end of May.

It was about this time (third wk. in May) that he repeated the story to me about his twin brother's death, but also that his mother had died while he was over there and I got the impression that he was angry at her for dying. Then he told me he had ended up at "Golden Gardens" a couple of weeks before that and had started hitchhiking back to town and he woke up in the Providence hospital emergency room, not knowing how he got there.

About the latter part of May he supposedly went to work in Bremerton at the shipyard and rented a small apartment with money he borrowed from the credit union. He came back to visit the couple around the 25th of May and on that night he, the couple, a mutual friend and I went out for a few drinks. This was when we first noticed his "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" personality. After just a couple of beers he became hostile and belligerent toward all of us, and tried to pick fights with everyone he met. We had been warned about his double personality, but couldn't believe it until this time.

During June, around the middle of the month, he visited the couple again. He said he had been working around the clock and supposedly had been sent to Hawaii (by the shipyard) to do some work there. Also he had supposedly had to jump overboard into the sound because his leg (pate) had caught fire on the ship.

Shortly after this the man (of the couple previously referred to) saw [redacted] with two young women that were about 18 yrs. old. One had long red hair and one had long blonde hair (the blonde was quite striking in appearance). [redacted] said he had picked them up hitchhiking on his way back from Portland, where he had supposedly been sent by Puget Sound Shipyard. He said he was going to take the girls back to Portland — that he had to leave that night by midnight because "he had one more trip ~~for~~ to make for that — outfit he worked for and he was through." He was hinting that he needed some money to make the trip but no one offered him any. That night he still had not gone to Portland, and when ~~she~~ was asked what happened to the girls, [redacted] said he had taken them to Golden Gardens and dropped them off. Later he said he had known one of the girls before and she had given him her address in Portland. He did not go to Portland that night and as far as we know, never went back to his job in Bremerton — in fact, never mentioned it again.

On the 5th day of July he went to work for Boeing as a journeyman machinist, supposedly at $9.00 an hr. He told the couple that when he got paid on the 18th of July he would reimburse them for staying with them and would find another place to live.

During the time between the 5th and the 18th he professed to be working quite late at Boeing several times (he had the day shift) which in itself was not unusual - however on several occasions he was seen by two of us driving up and down Rainier in the afternoons. On these occasions he would arrive at the couple's house at about midnight and say he had been working all that time. Also during this time, almost every night, he would come home with his face and clothing covered with dirt smudges ("earth-type dirt"), so much so that he appeared to have been a ditch digger instead of a machinist.

On the morning of the 18th, he was given a ride to Boeing to pick up his check and as he got out of the car he was acting strangely - looking around as if afraid of being seen. He did come out with what resembled a check, after which the couple did not see or hear from him till July 21. Thinking he wasn't coming back, the woman went upstairs to clean out the room he had been sleeping in. Under a couch in that room she found a shirt he^{had} been wearing. It had a large hole about 4" in diameter burned in the right upper chest area and the right sleeve had been folded over so that it also had a smaller hole burned in it. Her first reaction was he had fallen asleep with a cigarette, but then she became afraid he had one of his angry moods and purposely tried to burn the house down.

On the 21st of July he called long distance and said he had gone to that town he was in to find this woman we knew. He said he had only been paid for a week and had put $50. on an ^{Seattle} apartment and only had $40.- left. Later we found out he was loaded with money and had invested in a lot of fishing equipment. Anyway during the phone conversation the woman told him she didn't want him back in the house. He came by that same afternoon to pick up his work clothes and an envelope that was addressed to a Boeing physician.

I'm sure that most of the aforementioned would seem normal to most people, especially if he truly had just returned from Vietnam. I can not put into words the underlying feelings of anxiety that were felt by everyone when around this person.

 bears a ^{striking} resemblance to the later drawings of "Ted" with the exception that his eyes are not as "close-set" as "Ted's".

We have been discussing the resemblance for some time. Today, during a telephone conversation with the woman who originally picked [redacted] up (in early May) ^{she} mentioned for the first time, that when she picked [redacted] up his hand was injured because it was in a cast. Unfortunately she cannot remember, that far back, which hand. Earlier today I heard on the news that a young man with his arm in a sling or cast had approached a girl in central Washington in late April. This just seemed too coincidental to me to let it go any longer.

I must apologize for the length of this letter, but since I couldn't remember definite dates, I had to piece it together the best I could.

RECORD
SECTION

74 AUG 1 AM 7:46

Investigation at new lodge

08-01-74 1115 HRS.

Contacted Mrs. Klawitter and her babysitter; Robin A. Williams, 4708 "T" St. Sacramento, Ca. 95819, D.O.B. 11-21-56, PH. 916-451-7997; at the Mercer Island Travelodge #115.

Both women looked at the composite and believed it was the man they saw if the hair style was changed.

In addition, Mrs. Klawitter is a sociologist and artist in oils, therefore she noticed details of speech, dress, etc. that might otherwise ^{be} overlooked ~~by~~.

~~The~~ The man was dressed very neatly, had a good tan, a football player build, was very handsome, and had an "immaculate" hair-do. He at one point indicated an injured arm or hand and said he injured it playing ~~racquet~~ UNK. or with a racquet. (Neither Mrs. Klawitter nor Robin could recall exactly except that he mentioned racquet definitely). He had an accent and was a smooth talker, "a fantastic personality", and could drop the accent at will. ~~The~~ Mrs. Klawitter especially noticed that when he lapsed into the accent, his speech was very proper and British, and his eyes dilated.

He would also use the word "affirmative" rather than yes at times and seemed familiar with the military.

Robin stated she saw him facing his shoes at one time and believed he was left handed.

He apparently was trying to get Robin to agree to meet him at Brichard Gardens in Victoria.

His conversations with Robin and Mrs. Klawitter, seperately, did not always agree when compared — He wore a Black Hills gold type ring and told Robin he had it 3 yrs. but told Mrs. Klawitter he had just "obtained" it.

He was accompanied by an older WFA (40-50's) in the camper although he appeared to ignore her and Mrs. Klawitter seemed to feel she was an alcoholic.

He stated he and the female were heading for Alaska after leaving the campgrounds.

USED A BRITISH ACCENT THAT SOUNDED PHONY. HE HAD A GOOD EVEN TAN AND A FANTASTIC PERSONALITY. HE WOULD USE THE BRITISH ACCENT OCCASIONALLY BUT IT WASN'T A COCKNEY OR EDUCATED ACCENT RATHER SOMEONE WHO WAS TRYING TO USE AN ENGLISH ACCENT. ALL OF HIS CLOTHING APPEARED EXPENSIVE AND HE TRIED TO TALK LIKE SOMEONE WHO WAS SUPER-SOPHISTICATED. I REMEMBER ON ONE OCCASION HE REPLIED IN A LATIN ANTONYM AFTER I SAID SOMETHING IN LATIN. HE HAD A VERY A VERY EXPENSIVE "BLACK HILLS" GOLD RING ON HIS LEFT HAND. THERE WAS AN OLDER WOMAN WITH HIM THAT APPEARED TO BE AN ALCOHOLIC BUT I ONLY SPOKE WITH HER BRIEFLY ABOUT BUCHART GARDENS. HE MENTIONED THAT THEY WERE GOING TO TRAVEL ON UP TO ALASKA. I SAW A COMPOSITE DRAWING IN THE NEWSPAPER ABOUT A MAN CONNECTED TO TWO MISSING GIRLS AT LAKE SAMMANISH PARK AND THE MAN I HAVE DESCRIBED IS A DEAD RINGER FOR THE COMPOSITE BUT THE HAIR WAS LONGER. I HAVE DRAWN IN THE HAIRSTYLE AS I REMEMBERED IT FOR DET. DUNN AND SIGNED THE PHOTOGRAPH. THIS STATEMENT IS TRUE TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE. 1500⁰⁸h/74. Jacqui Klawitter
