CONTACTED AT OFFICE FOR

HE RECALLS SAYING GOODNIGHT TO BOTH KAREN & BOB ABOUT 2 AM. KAREN SLEPT DOWNSTAIRS & BOB UPSTAIRS.

IS NOT SURE BUT BOTH HE AND CARL WENT TO BED ABOUT THE SAME TIME A SHORT TIME AFTER KAREN. HE DOESN'T REMEMBER IF LIGHTS WERE ON OR NOT.

ALL 3 WERE AT HOME ALL MORNING ON JAN 4. SCHOOL HAD NOT BEGUN. ARRIVED AT ABOUT 1-1:30 PM. BELIEVES EVERYONE WAS DRINKING LIQUOR.

ABOUT 1430 THE PHONE RANG AND WENT DOWN TO SEE IF KAREN WAS HOME. HE OPENED KAREN'S DOOR AND SAW HER FEET & THOUGHT SHE WAS STILL SLEEPING. THEN HE WENT BACK UPSTAIRS. KAREN USUALLY SLEPT ON INTO THE AFTERNOON SO IT WAS NOT UNUSUAL TO SEE HER SLEEPING AT 1430. SHE DIDN'T GET HOME FROM WORK UNTIL MIDNIGHT.

AT ABOUT 3:30 & LEFT & RETURNED. AT ABOUT 4:00 PM. WAS NOT THERE WHEN THEY RETURNED.

THOUGHT THAT CARL MENTIONED THAT HE HEARD THE SIDE DOOR OPEN OR SHUT IN THE AFTERNOON. THE SIDE DOOR WAS NOISY TO OPEN OR SHUT.

I have known Karen Sparks since April of 1972. I went with her from about that time on, although last March we separated for awhile and in September and August of 1973 we broke off for awhile during which time we saw other people. I was going with Karen in January of 1974. The last time I saw her before her accident was on New Years Day. I was visiting at her house at 4523 8th N.E. and she was playing bridge with Wito Perilli, his girlfriend Joyce, Janette Lee and red something. I wasn't very happy about that because Karen wasn't paying much attention to me so when I left we weren't getting along too well. That was on Tuesday, January 1st. I believe I spoke with Karen on Wednesday night by phone, to patch things up. On Thursday January 3rd I called her around 8:00 and she wasn't home. I stay up pretty late and so

Statement of [REDACTED]

I called her around midnight and talked to her for about a half an hour. This was mostly small talk. This I remember because of the Allan King on Las Vegas Special on Television. She said she was going to read for awhile. I think I went to the bed then. I was working at the time for Johnsons Products in Kent. Around this time I was getting a ride to and from work with Paul Stroud. I had to be at work at 7:00 a.m. and got off at 3:30 unless there was overtime. Except for the weeks I worked with Paul I took the bus from Burien Plaza to work and returned home by bus. My car wasn't working - it's a '58 Mercedes and rarely worked. After I got home from work on January 4th I was around 4 or 4:15. I fell asleep in front of the television watching Bonanza and about 6:00 I woke up and saw my brother. I don't remember any conversation but I wasn't feeling very well so I went to bed. My mother and brother went to a wrestling banquet that night - they were the only people I lived with. The banquet was for Evergreen. The next morning, Saturday, I woke up around 11:30 or noon I was feeling better and my mom said [REDACTED] had called. I called Karen's house and asked for Karen. [REDACTED] answered and when I asked for Karen, [REDACTED] gave the phone to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] said that Karen had bumped her head and was in University Hospital. I have known Karen Sparks since April of 1972. I went with her from about that time on, although last March we separated for awhile and in September and August of 1973 we broke off for awhile during which time we saw other people. I was going with Karen in January of 1974. The last time I saw her before her accident was on New Years Day. I was visiting at her house at 4523 8th N.E. and she was playing bridge with Wito Perilli, his girlfriend Joanne, Joannette Lee and Ned something. I wasn't very happy about that because Karen wasn't paying much attention to me so when I left we weren't getting along too well. That was on Tuesday, January 1st. I believe I spoke with Karen on Wednesday night by phone, to patch things up. On Thursday January 3rd I called her around 8:00 and she wasn't home. I stay up pretty late and so

I called her around midnight and talked to her for about a half an hour. This was mostly small talk. This I remember because of the Allan King on Las Vegas Special on Television. She said she was going to read for awhile. I think I went to the bed then. I was working at the time for Johnson Products in Kent. Around this time I was getting a ride to and from work with Paul Street. I had to be at work at 7:00 a.m. and got off at 3:30. [REDACTED] there was operating. Det. Keppel -

6:45 pm, Fri. Aug. 8th. (75) I was waiting for the Ballard #30 bus at N.E. 45th (by U. Way N.E.) when the bus was pulling up to stop a young man came up and joined the crowd (8-10 people). He had a book in his hand My Life in the Mafia. He stood and waited for several to board. I was standing towards the back. He turned and looked back, it was then I recognized the police picture that we keep on our refrigerator of the "Ted" fellow. He also had a transit in hand.

He started to board the bus and I said to an overweight girl with a back-pack. "When you get on, take a good look at the blond fellow -" (Previous to this I had chatted with her - she said she was from out of town). She sat in front behind the driver. He sat on the left side about 3 down. I sat in rear right. About half-way to the Phinney Ave. (top 2 hill) stop, she got off. At the Dayton Ave. N. stop, he gave a start and pulled the cord. Got off at the Phinney Ave. bus stop, and hurried back down 46th towards Dayton Ave. North.

At N.W. Market and N.W. 15th stop (by the Cafeteria) where I got off - I asked the driver if he noticed the blond fellow that got off on Phinney stop. He said he did. I asked him if he saw his face. He said he hadn't noticed. He said he was on that run on Thurs. and Fridays. He's got dark complexion, hair & eyes.

I went home and called the "Teddy" number. No answer. Then I called the other no. and the woman who answered said I'd have to give the details Monday. So - I came.

I want to emphasize that I have seen a great many young men who do look some thing like "Ted" - but this one looks exactly Steel grey eyes - hair very light brown, ~~but~~ golden glow in sun - makes himself very quiet, inconspicuous. Neat - not a spot on him. Expensive white shirt (no buttons) lined by blue embroidery, lt. blue cordray (small) pants, lt. blue denim-type jacket on arm. Brown/tan shoes - heel 1" - about. Tall and slender, not stocky.

His hair is longer now. Covered the top of his shirt collar. Mustache - kept short and neat. Sideburns - broad at bottom near ear - Hair on there also short and neat.

and was picked up by "TED". "TED" was driving a White Ford bearing Wash. license ACA 233.

"TED" is as previously described. He has a tatoo on his right arm. (Didn't remember what the tatoo looked like. "TED" acted a little "gay." "TED" talked with a slight accent DETAILS: that slipped out occasionally. The accent sounded Canadian or English. The car had a for sale sign in the rear window. This "TED" talked weird and said at one time he wished he had a machine gun so he could shoot all the passing cars. Although "TED" had agreed to take informant to Anacortes cut-off he sudenly pulled off the road and told informant he had to go down the particular unused road they were stopped next to.

P - J Reward
Seattle Post-Intelligencer

Gentlemen:

On or about July 30, 1974 during lunch hour, the following was observed at Smitty's University District Pancake House - 2947 Eastlake East.

Individual entered restaurant alone and sat at corner table alone. Young man about 25-26 years old. Slight but athletic build, dark tan, about 5 feet 9, 160 pounds, neck length brown hair, full beard and mustache (but could have been recent growth) Casual dress, red slacks, sport shirt, wind breaker type light jacket. Facial characteristics similar to composite drawing published in P - J.

The individual attracted my attention in that every time he conversed with a female, in this case the receptionist and waitress, he would break out in a big grin and smile and appear to be highly pleased with himself - some inner smugness. Even after the female had left his vicinity, he would continue to smile and appeared to be laughing to himself - as though he knew something no one else did. He had minimum conversation with the restaurant help.

Upon leaving the restaurant this individual departed in a VW. The VW was not a bug or the large, bus camper type, but a square-back or perhaps fast-back. In any event it had a flat top. Washington license number ORZ [redacted] painted blue and rather shiny, a fairly late model probably 1971 or 1972. There were several small stickers posted on the windows of the car. The stickers appeared to advertise some mountain resort since either mountains, trees or both, were pictured on the stickers.

{ It is believed your "Ted" is a discharged veteran. He is, or was, a student at a University or Community College in the Puget Sound area. He is, or was, also probably drawing State Unemployment. Since the individual is probably some type of summer ski-bum, he would carry only enough load at school to insure receipt of his G-I benefits.

All calls relating to the missing women must be logged. Information should be as complete as possible. We need a record of the time, date and name of the person calling in order to avoid controversy over who supplied what information when. If the caller says something that suggests lack of credibility, note it. If the caller desires anonymity, indicate that as well.

Details: Palmer is near Cumberland. Just came from a place called the clay pit, it's a swimming hole. While there I saw an old guy, about 50, a man not known in the area. He was approaching people and talking to them. Then when I was leaving he came to me and asked me if I wanted to take a walk with him.

It's strange because around here everyone knows everyone else. This man was a stranger.

King County Sheriff's Detectives: re Case #74-123376
K.C. Public Safety Files

Within the last month I watched Mike Wallace's interview TV Show. It was during the period that Cicely Tyson was co-host.
On the program was a young woman from Philadelphia who had been raped - 4-5 years previously by a young man she met in a park.
She described him as personable and very pleasant to talk to and with his arm in a cast. At the time I thought of "Ted" as being too young to be included as a possibility in her rape but with a recent article I realize that this would place him in Pennsylvania at about 18-19.

On the one hand I'm sure that the Sheriff's office heard the broadcast or has been notified of it - on the other that I should write this in the event it escaped your notice.

Dear Mr. Brenden;

Thank you for the help in trying to Locate a Kate Stannard who might have been confused by some unwanted callers with my daughter, Kathy Stannard.

To review - it seems that Kate Stannard did live in Olympia and had moved to Seattle.
So far no contact has been made and so no answers to the question as to how and why two men had my daughter's name and address and were so interested in her personal life.

The Olympia Police are properly notified and furnished a copy of the papers I'm sending you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir;

I want to thank you for your attention and consideration in the past. Enclosed are copies of material for your use in any way it will help your department.

My complain is, that a pair of men uninvited and unsolicited came to my house, 747 Blue Rd, Olympia, Wa 98501, to deliver Religious materials to my daughter, Kathy Stannard. They were asking questions about her age, marital status, relationship to me grade in school and religious preference. These people were reluctant to leave their name or phone number or proof of identification or registration with the police Department to make house calls. When I place a phone call your man on the desk said he had never heard of them.

The question is, how did these people obtain my daughters name and address and for what purpose if they were not representing "Faith for Today" as the enclosed papers seem to indicate that they were imposters.

Sincerely yours,
Maurice P. Stannard

about 3 weeks ago. ^{Nov 5. 11}
2 men called at my house asking for my 14 year old daughter explaining that she had filled out a card at the fair and they had some ~~material for her~~ religious material for her.

My daughter wasn't home so they left the material with me. They were very inquisitive about her age, school and life ideals. They ~~were~~ ^{seemed} candid enough.

When my daughter came home I ~~stated~~ told her a couple of people had called and left some things for her in reply to a card she had filled out at the fair. She hadn't filled out any cards at the fair so I took it up to check on it.

Thinking they might have made a mistake I tried to contact a K. Starnard whose name is similar to my daughter to see if she might be wanting this material. I also called Olympia police about "Truth for Today". They never heard of them.

Nov 5, 75
The search for K. Stannard lead ended in Seattle. But in the meantime something about this situation kept me thinking about the "Ted Mardera".

I couldn't put a reason to it till I finally recalled a prostitution ring I had known about in, Montana, years ago. (international connections if I recall). Girls were disappearing from time to time; some found murdered others never found and some eventually discovered in bondage at houses of prostitution.

The murdered girls found were those who could not be managed and might expose the racket and were used as examples, cited to the difficult ones to bring them into line.
More often than not these girls were carefully selected and picked up only after they had been kept under surveillance for as long as a year or two. This was often done by people posing as missionaries distributing printed material from house to house.

By the way the girls were in a group of copies of the material left for Kathy Stennard delivered by two curious (nosy) Men leaving the impression that they represented "Faith for Today" and had gotten her name from a card she had filled out in a Booth at ^{the} fair.

GOD--THE ANSWER TO ALL OUR PROBLEMS

LESSON 1

A delivery truck pulled up to the rear of a store and the driver climbed from the cab to carry several cartons into the storeroom. He stacked them one by one until he came to the last package. As he lifted it, a surprised look crossed his face and he shouted to the store manager, "This carton is so light it feels as if they'd shipped you an empty!" The manager took the lightweight carton and shook it. Then he cut open its top with his knife. Sure enough! Someone had taken the trouble to seal the box, address it, and pay the freight on it, but had failed to put a single thing inside.

Many persons in our world today feel that life is hollow and empty. They start out with every promise of happiness and success. On the surface the prospects for a full and satisfying experience seem bright, but when they get into life in earnest, it seems that they are frustrated at every turn. Their brightest hopes are marred by disappointment. Injustice hinders their ambitions in making a successful career.

Marriage often ends in failure, or fails to materialize into the rosy dream the participants had anticipated. Cruel fate strikes at their innocent children and they find their hearts torn with sorrow. They struggle to make money only to find that money does not buy happiness. When they try to sum it all up they are baffled with questionings, and they conclude that life has handed them an "empty"!

Have you ever asked yourself, What is life all about anyhow? Why all this confusion and frustration? Does life have any sane meaning? Is it possible to be happy in what seems to be a world of cruel chance? Is there a God who is interested in me? Or, is life just a hollow, empty experience thrust on me against my will?

Before we attempt to discover the answers to our questions, let us stop and think. Here and there are certain people who live in the same hard world we do, yet they are happy. They know contentment and peace of mind. Nothing seems to remove the smile from their faces. We observe that they too face the same problems in life that we face, yet they do not seem frustrated or discouraged. What makes them different from the majority of folks we know? What do they have that others do not possess?

How can they face trouble with courage and a smile? What's the secret?

1 ARE WE MISSING SOMETHING?

Obviously, if some folks have an inward something that enables them to face life with courage and confidence in spite of all the frustrations, and we lack that something, then we are certainly missing a great deal. What is it? A little boy in school was asked to give a definition of salt. He hesitated for a moment and then answered, "Well—salt is what spoils your potatoes when you leave it out."

The trouble with most people is their need of true religion. Perhaps you seriously ask, What is religion? And the answer may well be, True religion is what spoils life if you leave it out. It is that which spoils the home if there isn't any in it. It is what destroys character if it is deleted. It is what leaves life flat and tasteless when it is omitted.

Before Dwight D. Eisenhower took his office as President of the United States, he made this comment: "This is what I found out about religion. It gives you courage to make decisions you must make in a crisis, and then the confidence to leave the result to a higher Power. Only by trust in God can a man carrying responsibility find repose." This is exactly what the Holy Bible says about true religion:

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee (Isaiah 26:3).

This Bible verse immediately implies that religion is more than a creed or theological philosophy. Religion can be summed up in just two words—Jesus Christ. He is a person, and that person is a life. True religion, then, is life in Christ. Do you long for courage to face the unknown future? You will find it in making the personal acquaintance of this Man, Jesus.

A preacher presented Jesus Christ as the sure cure for worry in our troubled world. At the close of the service a troubled young man came to him and said: "I am glad that you presented a Person and not a formula." He had caught the idea that there is a God who cares, and that we can

Dear Friends;

Got your address from some friends so thought I'd drop you a line.

I'm mostly questions so here goes. Do you work strictly as correspondence schools or do you have branches where people can attend resident classes?
How many students do you have? How is your school supported financially? By what method do you obtain most of your enrollments? Do you have staff members in other cities who are paid money for their services? How ~~how~~ are these positions applied for? How are the applicants screened? If someone in my city were looking for work, is there some one nearby they could contact for a face to face interview?

Thanks loads

Dear Friend:

Our Bible school is strictly a correspondence school. We do not have branches in other cities.

At the present time we have about 25,000 active students in our school, and we are supported by donations.

Most of our enrollments come through our television program, and friends who send in names of those who are interested in studying our lessons.

The staff members who work for Faith for Today receive a salary commiserate to the work they are doing. We do not have openings at this time, and I understand that we have quite a few applications on file with the management.

I am enclosing a brochure that lists the free courses offered by the Faith for Today Bible school. We invite you to look this over and select any one of the courses that you may desire. The extra enrollment cards you may share with your friends.

May the Lord bless you, and if we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Capt. Mackie,

You all have probably thought of this, but just to be sure, I would suggest you program into the computer the following factor:

Whoever decapitated these women has had some experience butchering larger animals, because ordinary people do not know that the easiest way to decapitate a large animal with a knife is to slide the knife between the occiput and the occipital vertebra, from the rear, in such a way as to obtain entry to the spinal canal, and then slide the blade in both directions forward.

Most people who do not have a guillotin handy, have a difficult time severing a head by cutting the neck at any point, and naturally vertebra fragments would be present. I understand from the press accounts none such were found. Among types of callings that would embody the necessary knowledge would be: butchers, hunters, some cattlemen and farmers who might slaughter frequently, surgeons, autopsists, taxidermists, primitive headhunters, vivisectionists, people engaged in research involving dissection of larger animals, and (possibly) specially trained assassins.

I would suggest further that someone with a knowledge of local abandoned mine shafts, dry holes, etc. would be a logical suspect, because it would seem probable that the remainder of the bodies would have been dumped down such a shaft somewhere in the vicinity of Issaquah.

Perhaps it would pay, if it has not been done, to have a crime lab check the occiputs of the skulls for traces of knife steel, as such a procedure as I have described involves the use of a good deal of wedging force between skull and vertebra.

Hoping this information may be of some help to you, I remain sincerely yours and with best wishes for your success,

Sincerely yours,

WM DOB 2- [REDACTED]-50

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is one certified copy of complaint and warrant #06491, issued from Seattle District Justice Court, two photographs, and two copies of identification sheets relative to Mr. [REDACTED].

Detective Kenneth Engh, Washington County Sheriff's Office, Hillsboro, Oregon also has a warrant en route to you for Mr. [REDACTED]'s arrest.

As soon as Mr. [REDACTED]'s status as a fugitive has been clarified and it has been determined whether or not he will waive extradition, please notify Detective Germann of the Morals Detail, Seattle Police Department and Detective Engh, Washington County Sheriff's Office, Hillsboro, Oregon.

The prosecuting agencies involved in Mr. [REDACTED]'s case will coordinate this matter and determine which state will take initial custody of him.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Yours truly,
