At the time Liz talked to him she did not know anything about the handcuffs and therefore did not ask him anything about it. Also, she stated that her car had been stolen for a few days in the summer of 1973 and was gone for two or three days and when the car was returned the oriental type knife in the wood sheath was missing at that time. She stated that Ted did drive her car occasionally.

Liz was then asked if Ted had ever been to California. She stated Ted had been to the San Francisco area in the spring of 1973 for a few days on business. She did not know anything more about his visit there.

Liz then stated one thing that struck her funny that she had talked with Ted in June and he was talking about hearing one report on the radio in regards to several rapes which had occurred on 1st Avenue in Salt Lake which is near the area he lives. The description of the guy involved was a guy with a beard and he stated to her I guess that lets me out. He stated that he thought a possible suspect was an individual that lives in a house for mentally retarded people around the corner from him which would be on "F" Street and that right after this description came out this individual shaved his beard and head. Liz, he stated, isn't that kind of funny. Liz stated that she told him not any funnier than a guy that is growing a beard. She stated Ted grew a beard in June of 1975.

Liz then referred to a question that had been asked in an earlier interview in regards to two separate Teds or schizophrenic personality. She stated that in thinking back Ted is very jealous of her. He follows her when she goes to various places or meetings to see who she is with or what she is doing. She stated he takes naps and sleeps a lot during the day and is out a lot late at night. She stated he used to sneak up on her when she was walking alone at night when she had no idea he was around and suddenly jump out of the bushes and grab her scaring the hell out of her.

She stated that this really made her angry. Liz referred back to the girls which were missing from the Seattle area stating that the only one she could really pin-point was one on July 14, 1974 which turned up missing shortly after she started becoming suspicious of Ted.

She stated on Saturday night they had been out and had argued. On Sunday morning she was starting to get ready for church and that Ted came over which surprised her due to the fact she thought he was mad at her. She stated he asked her where she was going to which she told him to church and then another place she was going and she thought he might meet her there, however, he did not. She stated approximately 6:00 PM that day he came over and asked her to go out to dinner with him. She stated at that time she had asked him where he had been as he looked very beat. He told her just laying around.

Liz was then asked as to her opinion of Ted's sexual activities, as to whether he as a very virile man and was able to have repeated intercourse with only a few minutes in between. She stated when they first met he was able to perform very well, however, after six years of knowing him she stated she feels he is just a normal man. Liz was then shown a picture of the items which were confiscated from Ted's vehicle at the time of his arrest. She was asked if she had ever seen the crowbar before and she stated she had not and had no idea of his having it. She stated the only thing she has ever seen before is the gloves and the bag and the rest is foreign to her.

Liz stated that the items did look very suspicious and could cause some concern. Liz then stated there was another item which she could think of that might be somewhat suspicious. She stated when Ted used to drive her car around she noticed he had taken her handle for her jack and had taped the one end of it. This being the end that curves slightly with adhesive tape and she had found this inside of her car a few times and not just in the trunk area. She stated she had asked him as to why he had taped the handle and this occurred during the time there were student riots at the University and he stated with the riots you never know when you might need it.

She stated another incident that one night he was at her house, that he left, then came back shortly after. He returned to the porch and took something from an urn on the porch. She opened the door and observed the action but was unsure what it was and when she asked him what it was he looked sick and tried to hide it from her. She stated she grabbed it from him discovering it was a pair of surgical gloves. She asked him what they were for and he just turned and left. This she said was one night late at night.

Liz then referred back to December and she had read or heard from somewhere that one of the individuals in the Salt Lake area was supposedly wearing a trench coat and when she flew into Salt Lake and Ted met her at the airport that he was wearing his trench coat telling her how much he really liked it and enjoyed it. She stated she was quite struck when she saw him in the trench coat due to the fact that she had heard or read this previous to her coming down.

Liz then stated after Ted learned that the police had talked to his landlord about him he called her and told her that if the police should try to contact her and talk to her that she was not to talk to them without first obtaining a lawyer. She stated she asked him what do I need a lawyer for, I haven't done anything wrong. She stated he told her that he just didn't want her to talk to the police without having an attorney present.

The only time she had ever known him to be there was approximately one week prior to the disappearance of the one girl from the State Park area. She stated at that time he had went there alone.

Liz then stated after having talked about the items which have been discussed in the interviews both yesterday and today her doubts are greatly increasing towards Ted and she wishes she could know for sure and at this time she has considerable doubts.
