Mary was then asked if she had any ideas as to what type of hair-do's Ted liked or any particular style or type of girl that he liked. She stated he loved long hair and liked to play with Liz's hair all the time, always running his fingers and hands through it.

Mary was then asked if she knew of any of Ted's friends. She stated Ted did not have very many friends in Seattle. The people she knew that had met Ted saw through him as a phony. Mary was then asked if it would be hard for Ted to start a conversation with a stranger such as picking up a girl. She stated it would be very easy for him to do this as he dressed very well, was a good conversationalist and was very good looking and it would be very easy to strike up a conversation with a strange girl and possibly talk her into going with him.

Mary was then asked if Ted had ever said anything to her or around her in regards to evidence or laws of evidence regarding his work or schooling as an attorney. She stated he had not.

Mary then stated Ted calls all the time from Salt Lake and whenever she is at Liz's apartment and he calls and Liz is not at home he gets quite upset. She also stated that if Ted calls and no one is home at Liz's apartment he will immediately call her apartment and be very upset because Liz is not at home. She stated he is very jealous of Liz.

Mary was then asked if she knew how Ted was getting his money for his schooling. She stated Ted did not come from a rich family, he did not have very much money. She stated she is sure he steals things to get money, that he lies. She stated she knows he has lied to her and he has also lied to Liz. Mary then went on to state that one time when they were taking a river trip, that he likes to get down the river into the rapids area and go further than he should deliberately to try and scare the girls that are with him as he just loves to see girls scared.
