COMPLAINANT: DEAN KENT

Reporting Officer and Officer Stones contacted Mrs. Joan Marshall, [REDACTED] Mrs. Marshall indicated that she could not recall for sure but either Wednesday or Friday night somewhere between 10:00 and 12:00 PM she had heard a vehicle she thought was larger than a pickup accelerate rather rapidly east past her home. She could offer no further information as she did not see the vehicle or anything else in the area.

This area was checked by this Officer, Officer Stones and Deputy Hunt on all ditch banks, sheds, the pond in the area and all weed areas with negative results.

Reporting Officer met with Mrs. Shepard (Rayleen) and Doyle Shaw at this Department where Mrs. Shepard described a possible suspect in this case while Mr. Shaw made a composite drawing. After the composite was made Officer Lawrence looked at it and felt it was a very close likeness of an Arthur Gene Milton of [REDACTED]

Information was obtained that Mr. Milton had been arrested by Provo City Police Department. Contact was made with them. This Officer and Sgt. Ballantyne went to Provo City Police Department and obtained a picture of this individual. During this time this Officer also stopped at Murray City Police Department where the composite was shown to their victim, Carol DaRonch. She examined the composite stating that she was just not sure as she did not recall the mustache and did not remember the hair being combed as drawn on the composite, however, she felt it did look somewhat like the individual she had been confronted by.

While there Sgt. Ballantyne talked with Detective Forbes. Detective Forbes supplied Sgt. Ballantyne with a picture on a Steven Craig Taylor indicating this might be a possible suspect as it does somewhat resemble the composite, however, this individual is quite a bit younger than that described by the witness.
