SURVEILLANCE TEAM: SGT. W.O. COLLARD
DETECTIVE IRA BEAL
DETECTIVE ART STONES

A joint meeting was held at approximately 8:00 a.m., at the Metropolitan Hall of Justice with Catpain Pete Hayward after which surveillance was set up in the area of I Street and First Avenue. This took place at approximately 9:40 a.m.

While setting the surveillance up, it was determined that the subject's vehicle, a beige Volkswagen, was not in the area at which time an attempt was made by Sgt. Collard at the University of Utah to locate the car. Attempts were made by Detective Beal and Detective Stones to locate the car in the area of downtown Salt Lake City.

At approximately 2:30 p.m., Reporting Officer made contact with Detective Thompson who advised Reporting Officer of the subject's telephone number. This number was called and there was no one found to be at home.

A telephone call was placed at approximately 2:45 p.m. As of this time, which is 2:45 p.m., there has been no further contact with the subject or his Volkswagen.

At approximately 2:50 p.m., the girlfriend's Datsun, which is dark blue in color, was observed at the back of the residence. It was not observed coming in or out of the area by the officers on surveillance.

As of 4:10 P.m., Officers on surveillance have not made contact with the subject or his vehicle and as of 4:10 p.m., the dark blue Datsun, which was identified as belonging to his girlfriend, who lives directly below him, is still located at the rear of the apartment complex.

THIS CASE IS ACTIVE.
