Surveillance team with Sgt. W. O. Collard, Detective Art Stones and Deputy Detective J. R. Hunt.

On Sept. 15, 1975 the above officers set up surveillance in the neighborhood of "H" Street and 1st Avenue at 8:15 AM. At approximately 8:45 AM subject got in his car and drove south on 700 East to 800 South where he traveled west to Green Street where he stopped for approximately five minutes. The home at this location is a multiple dwelling and the addresses which may have been visited by the subject are as follows:

651, 653 or 647 or 649 East on 800 South.

The vehicle then left, traveled east on 800 South to the 2nd home east of 200 East on the right hand side of the road. At this location the vehicle then parked. The individual then walked across the street and talked to a man and a woman. The location address would be 727 East 800 South.

The man was described as male, approximately 6'3", 200#, with blonde hair. The address of this individual would have been a multiple dwelling also being either 713 or 715 East on 800 South.

At approximately 9:10 AM the officers lost contact with the subject vehicle in the area of 800 South 700 East. The vehicle was then picked up again at 9:30 AM at the subject's home by Detective Hunt. When the subject returned home he entered the home and came out with a passenger and went for a short ride. This would have consisted of having traveled north on "H" Street from 1st Avenue to 3rd Avenue and then east to "K" Street where he then turned left, traveled north and then to approximately 5th Avenue, made another turn to the left and came back down "J" Street and south on 1st Avenue back west to his home. There were no stops made and no real reason for the chase other than the fact that it is felt by observing officers that he is extremely paranoid and either suspects or is aware that he is being followed.

At 10:00 AM he came out of his home and walked to the store and went inside at this time. He was wearing a red and black plaid shirt, red gym shorts and tennis shoes. This was observed by Officer Hunt. At approximately 10:03 AM the subject returned home.

At 10:45 AM subject came from the apartment with a brown case which was approximately 1 1/2 feet high, 1 foot wide and 2 feet deep. At this time he visited with another tenant who had just traveled to the drugstore and bought a coke and was sitting on the front porch of the apartment house. The individual is the one with curly black hair and a mustache.

The subject was then followed to the University of Utah where he parked west across University Avenue across from the Law School, at approximately 10:10.

At this time the subject got out of his vehicle, walked north on University Avenue to 200 South then west to 1300 East and then back east on 200 South to University Avenue. At the whole time he kept looking about constantly. This officer observed him from about 3 blocks away from the circle in front of the University of Utah Administration Building.

The subject then appeared to observe this officer approximately 3 blocks away and began walking towards this officer's direction at which time this officer pulled out on the one way street and left the "U". Reporting officer then returned to the area at the east of the law school where he parked his car and entered the building directly south of the law school in order to keep surveillance on subject's vehicle.

While inside this officer was notified by Detective Stones that subject came walking by reporting officer's vehicle and examined the interior of that vehicle. This officer then observed the subject traveling west on 400 South towards the University Avenue, then north to his car. He then backed his car up approximately four parking spaces to the north, got out and went back into the law school building.

At about 11:45 AM subject left the law school, walked north on University to 200 South and then walked west to 1300 South and was last seen at this time at 300 South and 1300 East by Detective Hunt.

Approximately 10 minutes later which would have been 11:55 the subject was observed down in the area of 1100 East and 400 South, walking around and looking up and down the streets. At 12:15 the subject returned to his car and went home. He was at his home for approximately five minutes and then departed.

The subject was lost at approximately 12:25 in the area of the avenues and contact was lost until approximately 1:25 PM at which time his car was found parked at University Avenue and 300 South. This officer then took up surveillance of the subject's vehicle on University Avenue. Officer Hunt drove his car to the top of the circle in front of the University Administration Building and sat. At approximately 2:00 PM Officer Hunt observed the individual behind his car taking a picture of his vehicle and walking up and attempting to take a picture of himself.

At approximately 2:10 PM the officers met and discussed the situation at which time we decided to return to Bountiful. In returning this officer drove down University to 200 South. Subject's vehicle was still there.

Reporting officer then observed the subject standing in the middle of the intersection at 200 South & University Avenue with his camera. As the officer passed through he attempted to take a photograph of this officer and his vehicle.

The subject during the course of the day appeared to have accomplished nothing more than trying to evade these officers and trying to catch the officers as they were holding surveillance. His actions indicated that his purpose at the University was not one of study or attending any classes.

The subject is extremely concerned about being followed or watched and has a most suspicious nature about himself.
